Volk

The VOLK were birthed out of the belief the Russian government was allowing experiments to be performed on Russian citizens. After overtaking the Russian capital in 2042, VOLK absorbed the special operation units still left standing in the country and began an offensive to save their people. Once full control was gained over Russia, VOLK turned their attention West. Soon, VOLK forces began occupying TABOR following intel suggesting this was ground zero of the experiments. After the blast, VOLK struggles to take control of Tabor due to the GHOSTS and the resistance of the FENIX rebels of TABOR. VOLK believe the GHOSTS are trying to cover up and destroy the evidence connecting the US and Europe to the experiments performed on Russian citizens
